THE CHINCH BUG.

[illegible] gives us the following plan for [illegible] this insect. It is worth the trial.

[illegible] fall wheat, two quarts [illegible] spring wheat. The spring wheat growing up quickly soon be[comes] [illegible] while the winter wheat being of slower growth remains in stools and is tender. The bugs work on the fall wheat and the spring wheat is thus saved from its ravages.

To prevent the bugs from destroying winter wheat, it is recommended that about two quarts [illegible] wheat to the acre be sown in the spring, upon fields sown in the fall and then the whole gone over with a roller to press the seed in the ground. That sown in the fall shoots ahead of the spring planting, and as in the case of the spring wheat, that last planted falls a prey to the insect.

Our informant tells us that he has practiced this plan for three years and now considers it an infallible remedy for the evils for which the experiments were tried.—Prairie Farmer.

DAHLIAS.—As soon as the frost has completely killed the tops, the roots may be taken up, thoroughly dried in the sun and air, labelled, and put away on shelves in a dry cellar or room where they will not freeze.—Genesee Farmer.

The Triumph of Justice!

THE WAR ENDED!

S. P. TOWNSEND ABANDONED THE FIELD!!
OLD DR. JACOB TOWNSEND

Vindicated by the People!

S P Townsend has at last given up the manufacture of any more Sarsaparilla, having disposed of his business to some strangers.

Thus his claim to Originality and other pretensions

Fall to the ground!

He voluntarily abandons them, in thus evading the issue before the public, by disposing of his trade.

THE FACT that he was no physician, no chemist, the occupation of whose life was a worker on rail-roads, canals, chopping wood, saw-logs, dock-sticks, &c &c.— The fact, also, that his article became notorious for its Souring, Fermenting, and Bursting the Bottles, thereby Deceiving and Injuring the sick, and destroying goods, demonstrates beyond all reasoning or gainsaying, the fallacy of his pretensions, and the baseless fabric of his claims.

HEREAFTER IT IS TO BE SENT OUT to the people by some Strangers, yet bearing the name of S P Townsend.

We have been informed that these Strangers intend to print on the labels the name of some chemist, in order to redeem, if possible, its bad character of

SOURING AND FERMENTING.

Let the People fully understand that no Re-vamping, no new botching, no prefixing of Chemist's names, or any other folly, will redeem S. P. Townsend's souring compound from public odium unless it is made entirely different from its present character; and if they do this, it will become another article of Sarsaparilla, and they might as well give it another name first as last. It should then be called the

and not S P Townsend's. But if there is no alteration, the people may still expect the same old Souring, Fermenting, Root Beer stuff.

We have felt it a duty to inform the public of the true position of this matter, that may not be confounded with this souring article. In conclusion we would remark, that some months ago, S. P. Townsend left his Old Stand in Fulton street, a first rate store, and sat himself down only a few doors below us, in Nassau street, the motives and objects of which we leave others to judge.

We understand these Strangers, who have taken up S. P.'s business, intend to remain there. Such conduct needs no comment. We shall move from Nassau street in the spring, and we will then see if these strangers follow us as S. P. did.

Depot for the Old Doctor's Sarsaparilla is now 102 Nassau street.

THOMPSON, SKILLMAN & CO. Proprietors.

The Proprietors of this Sarsaparilla having been compelled by the unparalleled success which has attended their sales in "the West," have opened an Office on Vine street, three doors above Fourth, CINCINNATI, Ohio, and appointed G. # TO CONSUMPTIVES

The Disease can be Cured!

READ THE FOLLOWING LETTER.

Fitch's Remedies Triumphant!

THE following letter, taken from and published in the Portage Sentinel, at Ravenna, Ohio, on the 4th of March last, has been handed to us for perusal. Dr. Fitch, to whom the letter is addressed, resides at 707 Broadway, in this city, and he has published a work called SIX LECTURES to gentlemen and ladies on the disease called Consumption. These Lectures can be had in a small volume for fifty cents a copy, on application to most of the bookstores, and are replete with practical and useful information to cure and prevent Consumption. The Doctor's book has some great and good qualities. It shows how Consumption is produced and how it can be cured, and also it inspires justly the invalids with HOPE, when such people are not unfrequently in the condition of Milton's fallen angels, "to whom hope never comes."

Give a sick person Hope, and his case is always half won. Dr Fitch uses mechanical means and physical remedies, and is sparing in dealing out drugs and mineral medicines; but to the Letter, and it speaks what thousands of his patients have uttered:—

[From the Portage Sentinel.]

Dr S. S. Fitch: Dear Sir—In looking over the history of the last two years of my life, I am filled with gratitude to God for his great goodness in so far restoring my health, and giving me back to my family, after all hope had fled, and they could only look on me as already entering the grave. It has ever been to me a self-evident truth that the all-wise Creator always works by means, and it gives me a great pleasure, my dear sir, to say, that your remedies for the cure of consumption were the means, "the only means," of my recovery, as will more fully appear by the following statement of my case:

First, my family nearly all Consumptive—my mother, brother, and also a large number of other relatives died of Consumption. From my childhood my constitution was slender, and for the last 25 years as inclining to Consumption.

At the age of 25 years I commenced preaching the Gospel, with but little prospect of living to the age of 30. Lungs weak, a constant hoarseness and hacking Cough, some expectoration, often night sweats, and habitual costiveness, attended with frequent distressing nervous headaches. A change of climate from New York to Ohio operated favorably, and for 12 years I was able to act as Pastor of the Baptist church of Brimfield. In the winter of 1844 I had a severe attack of erysipelas fever, which very much injured my constitution, and left me in a decline. In the winter of 1846, I took the charge of a protracted meeting at Mantua, laboring night and day for four weeks, at the close of which I found my whole system entirely prostrated—my lungs so weak it was with difficulty I could speak so as to be heard. My friends and ministering brethren became alarmed, and earnestly advised me to stop preaching. But I did not realize my danger, and continued to preach two or three times each Sabbath during the summer. In September I took a violent cold, and at once found myself on a sick bed, with a hard cough, large expectoration of light frothy matter, daily chills, fever, night sweats, loss of appetite, pain in the chest, shoulders and limbs, palpitation of the heart, nervousness, &c. Tried the usual remedies, such as blistering, &c to no benefit. I went down rapidly, with increasing alarming symptoms until the middle of November. All hope was gone, and the community considered me past recovery.

A copy of your Lectures fell into my hands, the reading of which rekindled a spark of hope. I lost no time in applying to you, and on the first day of December "of happy memory," I received a full supply of your remedies. I followed your advice to the letter, and to the astonishment and joy of all my friends, my recovery was as rapid as had been my decline, so that on New Year's day I was able to visit my friends. I soon felt myself compelled to labor for the support of my family. During the summer I performed my usual amount of labor.

In October, 1848, I again found myself failing. I called on Dr A. Jackson Squire. He decided I had a chill fever—gave medicines which soon relieved me. However, I imprudently went out to soon, which brought on a relapse. The disease concentrated its whole force on my lungs—my right lung till then was sound—but now both lungs were highly congested. Cough returned with great violence—lungs soon became loaded with thick heavy matter, without the power to throw it off. I was out of your medicines but fortunately, I was able to borrow of one of your patients, one bottle of your Expectorant, one do. of Pulmonary Balsam, and a bottle of Antimucus Mixture. After taking the Expectorant a few days I raised large quantities of matter that would sink in water almost as soon as lead. The bottle of Expectorant saved my life. I immediately applied to you again—there was necessarily considerable delay in getting the medicines. My friends and physicians said there was no hope in my case, and I too felt that my time had come—made arrangements to leave my family—and how could I think otherwise? I had a hard Cough, raised large quantities of solid matter, distressing pains through my entire lungs, shoulders, bowels and limbs, daily chills and fever, night sweats, loss of appetite, flesh rapidly wasting away, and to crown the whole, swelled limbs and diarrhoea.

Your letters to me, dear sir, were full of kindness and encouragement. You said you fully believed I would yet recover. You did not misjudge. My recovery was slow, "but certain."

In May last I felt anxious to see you. My health still very poor, many of my friends thought me presumptuous in undertaking such a journey alone. On your examination of lungs, you pronounced the entire front of my left lung and the top of the right ulcerated. This was no news to me; I had made the statement often to my friends which I found to agree with your decision. You also said my lungs were in a healing state. I now acknowledge my doubts at the time, but have since found you correct.

In October last, I was elected to the office of Recorder of Portage county. My political opponents said that writing would kill me, and some of my friends even feared it might prove true. I have now been in the office, writing from four to eight deeds per day, for four months, my health improving all the while. The secret of all this is, Sir, you have learned me how to take care of my health. I am often asked, "Do you expect to be restored to perfect health?" I answer all such, "I never enjoyed perfect health; I have now almost gone through the winter without any serious attack of the lungs, and by care I hope yet to live to the common age of man." Dr. Earl, of Franklin, not long since said to me, "Sir, you are almost a miracle in the history of disease."— Others have expressed themselves in the same manner. In conclusion I will say, no man feels a deeper interest in Consumptives than myself. To all such I honestly and conscientiously would say, "Try Doctor Fitch's remedies—try them faithfully—do not say you cannot follow his directions, but take hold of them perseveringly, and through the blessing of God you may yet live who would otherwise sink into an early grave."

In publishing the above statement I believe I am doing my duty to an afflicted public, and to you, kind Sir, as a benefactor; and it shall ever be my prayer that peace, prosperity and long life may be yours.

With sincere regard I remain yours, truly,
RODOLPHUS BARD.

We are the only Agents for the State for the sale of all of Dr. Fitch's Remedies, GUIDE BOOK, a work of nearly 100 pages, gratis. His Lectures will be free to purchasers.

Mr. Schermerhorn, of the Monroe District, New York, is re-nominated for Congress. This district is one of the strongest anti-slavery districts in the State, and its representatives have heretofore steadily resisted the extension of slavery. Mr Schermerhorn at first, voted against the Texas bill, but afterward, when he found enough doughfaces could be bought to carry it, he put himself in the market, and voted for the bill. Through the influence of Fillmore office-holders, he has been re-nominated. We shall see if the Whigs of that district stultify themselves by re-electing him.

The Senate, at the instance of Senator Walker, appropriated $1,828 77, as the salary of John Catlin, of Madison, as Secretary and acting Governor of Wisconsin, from June 10th, 1848, to March 4th, 1849—8 months and 22 days, or about $7 a day, including Sundays. All the work Mr. Catlin performed for Uncle Sam in that time, we believe, was to order an election of a delegate for the Territory, which was considered at the time as a bright after-thought, and now turns out to be a rather profitable one. Uncle Sam's purse is large, and the people have to fill it.

The slave-catching law is creating much excitement throughout the North. The colored people in the large cities are holding meetings, passing resolutions to protect themselves, and are providing themselves with arms for that purpose. We hear of such meetings at Chicago, Pittsburgh, Oswego and elsewhere.

David Wilmot and James Lowry have both declined in favor of Mr. Grow, a former partner of Wilmot, who stands on Wilmot's ground. He gives satisfactory reasons for his course in a letter to the people of his district.

As the Governor of Texas has vetoed the bill accepting the proposition of Congress to give her an immense amount of territory, and ten millions of dollars, we take it the next Congress will be willing to make a new arrangement.

—A new paper has been started in Illinois, called the "Spirit of the West."

Why not call it Whiskey, and done with it?

Jenny Lind fools, it is said, will go farther, than any other articles in the market.—We quote this as the latest report.

The Democratic candidate for Governor, E. LOWE, of Maryland, is elected by some 2000 majority.

The Episcopal Convention are discussing the proper posture to be observed in prayer.

A large portion of the members of Congress drunk, at the close of the session, among them VIRGINIA BAYLEY, Chairman Committee of Ways and Means.

SALLY WARD, of rouge notoriety, is to be put in ward of another husband at Louisville.

Massachusetts State Convention passed half-and-half Resolutions on Slavery.

Doughface ASHMUN, of Mass., is rewarded for his servility, by a Foreign Appointment.

JUST AS GOOD AS LYING.

"MR. DURKEE has denied, by letter, before being charged, having any interest in the one locality over the other, or being prejudiced in any way in favor of either; but so long as the appropriation bill for Western Harbors shows a want of interest for this particular locality, when all others are properly cared for, how can we here but feel that there has been a want of proper care and watchfulness in regard to the interests of this section of the district? To intercede for us in behalf of our Harbor, was one great object in sending a member to Washington, and if Free Soilers find that our present member has failed to do that, they will fail to intercede for him.

Did any of these reflections cause you to compare figures so eagerly, neighbor Democrat?—Racine Commercial Advertiser.

Mr. DURKEE has published, over his own signature, the fact that he had procured the same amount of appropriation for the Racine Harbor, as for the Southport Harbor—that by a clerical error in copying, the amount for Racine was changed from $15,000 to $10,000—that he had applied to Mr. MCLANE, chairman of the Committee on Commerce, to have the matter corrected, and that he had pledged himself, if Mr. McLane did not move a correction, when the bill was taken up, that he would do it. These statements were published in two papers at Racine. We submit, therefore, in such circumstances, if the article of the Advertiser has not all the meanness and elements of a plump falsehood.

We are ashamed of the paper that can resort to such means to create a prejudice against a faithful Representative. At a time when so few have resisted the temptations to betray their constituents, those whose manhood and love of freedom are not all eaten out of them by the vitriol of partisanship, will approve the course of a trusty public servant. We take this as an indication that the Whig politicians of the District, whose principles are limited by party and spoils, are bent on waging a vindictive warfare against Mr. DURKEE, and are determined to stop at no means, however unfair, to compass his defeat. We can conceive of no course better calculated than this, to diminish their numbers, and alienate from them the best men of their party.

We can assure the Advertiser that we have no fears about the election of Mr. DURKEE—that our life and happiness do not depend upon the election of any man—that we are not tied up to party, and that when any party requires of us such service as that paper volunteers to render, its draft on us will be dishonored.

We support Mr. DURKEE, because he is capable, faithful, and, in our humble judgment, will better represent the people of this District than any other man named for the office. He has been tried in the furnace of this pro-slavery Congress, and the smell of fire is not in his garments.

HARMONY AND UNION

The Fond du Lac Journal has the following flattering notice of Lieut. Gov. Beall, whom it praised so highly at the last State election:

"In the recent judicial election, the malignant and base treachery of S. W. BEALL, is a subject of remark by everybody in this vicinity. He promised Mr. Drury's friends to support him. He thus lulled their usual suspicion of him. He then went to Germans and fraudulently induced them to vote for a whig, Timothy O. Howe, for judge. By this treachery of Beall the democratic town of Taycheedah was induced to give 32 majority against Mr. Drury, the democratic candidate, and perhaps has defeated his election."

The Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and Council of Massachusetts, visited JENNY LIND in Boston, October 1st.

The Senate concurred with the House 26 to 24 to abolish flogging in the Navy.

THE THEATRE.

We have not been a frequenter of the Theatre, and have never sat out an entire play, more than a dozen evenings in our life. We have been educated to regard the theatre with dislike. We have, therefore, no prepossessions in favor of it. The religious portion of the community—at least that part of it, styled orthodox and evangelical, with the exception of the Episcopal church, have set their faces against it, as pernicious to the interests of morality and religion, and the result has been, that the theatre has been patronized principally by the unsanctified portion of the people. The proprietors of the theatre, desirous of consulting the tastes of their patrons, have been compelled to select pieces for the stage, the moral tone of which, in many instances, has been deplorably low, and sometimes, offensive and disgusting to cultivated and intellectual minds. Then, the exhibitions of the danseuses—merely an improvement, at the other extremity, of the undress of the fashionable drawing room parties—in which the terpsichorian strives to imitate, as nearly as possible, the primitive style before fig-leaves were sewed together, or dress-making invented, are any thing but attractive, nay are positively repulsive to a chaste, refined, and virtuous taste.

The influence of the Theatre in this country, on the whole, we think, has not been on the side of virtue. It has been connected, in too many instances, with drinking and gaming appurtenances, not legitimately belonging to it, but attached to it for pecuniary reasons,—the owners understanding the physical law, that Desire waits on Opportunity. It has also been the resort of abandoned persons, who are always ready to obtrude their presence into mixed public assemblies.

But notwithstanding all these objections against theatres, as they have been, in a majority of instances, we cannot but regard the drama, properly conducted as a legitimate field of human exertion. We believe it may be made to blend amusement with instruction, so as to enforce high moral truth, promote virtue, cultivate and refine the taste, inspire to high and noble deeds, and lead the young and old to a better appreciation of their responsibilities and duties, and to aim at a higher and a truer life.

But to accomplish this, it must be patronized, sustained, and controlled by the virtuous and the good. We are as unwilling to give up the Dramatic department to the devil, as Wesley was, good music. We think Beelzebub has had control of this instrumentality about long enough, and that it is high time it was wrested from him. The young must have amusement, and until there is interest enough felt by our citizens to provide an attractive Library and Reading Rooms, with an ample Philosophical Apparatus, and a course of Lectures on Scientific and Literary Subjects, of a high and popular character, such as shall interest our citizens generally, preaching against the theatre will be about as effective, as the prayers of the priests of Baal, for the descent of Celestial fire.

A CANDIDATE FOR IMMORTALITY.—Two sticks for a Cent apiece!—We understand that a friend of ours is going to immortalize himself by footing it to New-York to see Jenny Lind, and hear her sing. He will take a stock of Molasses Candy to peddle by the way, to help pay expenses. Look out for the candy man!

The upper story of Martin's new stores, now being enclosed, has been leased by S. Gardiner, Jr., who is going to fit it up in a superior manner for a Public Hall—something long needed in Milwaukee.

A VISITOR.—A Big Dog came into our office yesterday, with a dime in his mouth, and a billet from his master to have the paper left for a week. A sensible man and a sensible dog.

WONT STAY SETTLED.

The Post, the leading Democratic paper at Pittsburgh, Pa., gives the following account of the workings of the fugitive slave law in that city:

"THE NEGROES.—We have heard many stories in regard to the movements of these unfortunate people, since the news of the passage of the iniquitous fugitive slave law, which was approved by President Fillmore. If reports are not exaggerated, near two hundred men have left this county for Canada, since last Saturday night. It is said that the southern masters have agents on the look out for fugitives in this city and in all the towns of the North.

"On Saturday night a party left for the North, and on Tuesday night a company numbering about sixty left Allegheny City. Other smaller parties have started off at various times. All go armed. We have not heard of many females going—we believe the females are generally free and cannot be claimed; therefore women and children are left behind. Each company has a captain or leader; and before starting they all make a firm resolve to die rather than be taken back to slavery.

"It is believed that the slave-catchers will station themselves along the Lake shore, so as to watch for the negroes as they pass. On this account the fugitives go armed.

"We had before no idea that so many of the colored people of this city were runaway slaves. Many who have stood high in the estimation of the public, and who were considered freemen by birth, turn out to be fugitives from the south.

"The law is denounced by the public generally. We have heard no man yet stand up in defence of it. To what extent it will even be observed, we cannot tell. But we believe the first effect made apparent, will be the strengthening of the anti-slavery feeling in the North."

The Free Democratic Senatorial Convention of Geauga and Trumbull counties, Ohio:

"Resolved, That we utterly abhor the recent fugitive bill, (now passed through both houses of Congress,) and regard it as legislation fit only for a nation of tyrants; and in regard to that bill and the law of 1793, our motto is, and shall continue to be Repeal! REPEAL!! REPEAL!!!"

The Cleveland Plaindealer, (dem.,) says of it:

"There is no rest here for the slave. It was not enough to steal him from his native wilds, thrust him into the suffocating hold of a ship and sell him for life to the cotton planter, but he must now be pursued by the hounds of Government, and the alternatives presented of slavery or death.

"By this late act of Congress, passed by Southern slave breeders and Northern compromisers, all the free States are made slavery ground, and all freemen, slave-catchers, if the law is to be enforced."

We recommend these testimonies to our neighbor of the Adverliser, who believes in the divine right of slaveholding and slave-catching, and in the divine prerogative of old Hunkerism to control all the offices and divide the spoils.

The Post has stated the case truly, that this law will strengthen the Anti-Slavery feeling of the North. It will do more. It will, in the end, overwhelm with confusion and disgrace all Northern doughfaces.

There was a terrible hail storm at Pittsburgh last Saturday, and a storm of rain and wind at New Orleans.

TRADE AND COMMERCE.

DAILY FREE DEMOCRAT OFFICE, Oct. 5, 1850.

Receipts of wheat have been rather less than last week, though there have been some busy days. On Wednesday about 4,500 bushels were brought in—on Thursday some 3,000 bushels. The receipts of the week have amounted to about 25,000 bushels. We quote at 68a70 cents. 20,000 bushels have been loaded for shipment. Some 1,000 barrels of flour, bought at $3,87a$3,75, were also sent down the lake.

Business in general has been good. We have in particular noticed one good sign—large quantities of goods daily going into the country. Merchants who have been complaining all summer, of dullness in trade, look bright and hopeful, and the prospects are good for a brisk fall and winter trade.

Our exchanges along the lake shore generally, speak of the markets as good, fair paying prices, and large receipts.

We notice the schooner Gazelle, from across the Lake, unloading 60,000 feet of lumber for Smith and McVickar.

LIFE ASSURANCE.
Ætna Insurance Company, HARTFORD, Conn.—ANNUITY FUND, $150,000.—This well known and long established Company, having organized a new department for LIFE INSURANCE with an entirely distinct capital, exclusively pledged with its reserved accumulations, for the payment of losses upon Life Insurance only, and in no event liable for the other debts, contracts, or engagements of the Company, is now prepared to issue Policies on Lives at rates materially reduced from those charged by the Mutual Companies. The leading idea of the system adopted by this Company, is, to ascertain precisely what it is worth to insure a given amount upon a life for a certain time, and to charge precisely that sum and no more. it is attended with none of those vexatious contingencies which are inseparable from the mutual system—it has nothing to do with scrip dividends or bonuses, the declaration of which upon true and equitable principles, is attended with so much difficulty and perplexity—it is perfectly simple, as well as uniform and equal in all its operations.

The promptness, fairness and liberality which have marked all the dealings of this Company, for a period of thirty years, and the well known character of its officers and directors, afford the surest guaranty that its affairs will be so managed as to afford to the assured that ultimate safety and security which is of first importance in Life Assurance.

Policies will be granted payable after death, or upon the party's arriving at a specified age, at his option; in either case free from the claims of creditors. The usual extra risks will be assumed by this Company at reasonable rates.

Pamphlets containing Rates of Premium, and information in relation to the plan of operations, and all necessary papers to effect insurance, may be obtained at the Agency of this Company.

The Accident in New York.

By the following from the New York Evening Post, it will be seen that Col. WALKER, of this city, came near being drowned in New York Harbor. A waggish friend of ours, fond of a joke on all occasions, thinks the Bay must have risen an inch or two.

FATAL ACCIDENT—Two Lives Lost.—The fearful accident which occurred at the departure of the steamer Pacific on Saturday afternoon from her dock, foot of Canal street, resulted in the death of two persons, Mr. John Watson, who died immediately after the accident, and John McCormick, who died yesterday at the City Hospital. MILWAUKEE A PORT OF ENTRY.—We [illegible] despatch announcing that [illegible] W. H[illegible], Esq., has been nominated and [illegible] collector of the port of Milwaukee.

[illegible] The Albion Hotel, at Canada West, [illegible] and six fine horses were consumed [illegible] Sept. 31. Loss $20,000, no [illegible].

A COMMITTEE MAN.—The following "talk" [illegible] to have taken place in the vicinity of the railroad the other day:

"Well, Zeb, what bizness is you prosecutin' nowadays?"

"Oh, nuffin much," said Jim, "'ceptin dat I [illegible] acts as mittee man down to de [illegible]."

"Oh, hush! you don't say so. When did [illegible] at such extinguishment?"

"Why, I'se been follerin it less or more all this season, 'specially since de ralerode went into corporation."

"Well Zeb, what composition do you get for your services?"

"Oh, nuffin to mention, 'ceptin dat I 'casionally hab de disagreeable honor ob 'sistin to put away de locomotur into de 'stablishment, which you know may some time or anoder exalt me to de extinguished kerpacity of ingineer!"

—Mr. Talbot, the free soil candidate for governor in Maine, has lost the use of one eye, and has one wooden leg. Soon after his nomination, an inveterate wag, who then acted with the free soilers, was observed to be highly elated. When asked what tickled his fancy so much—"Why you see," said he, "we have a candiate now who will run any of your whigs or democrats off the track; for he can stump it through the State with an eye single to the good of the country!"—Boston Post.

Henry Ward Beecher and the 'Sons.'—Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, who is a Son of Temperance, has written a letter to an Eastern paper, stating that if the action of the National Division, excluding colored persons, is to become the unalterable law of the Order, he shall withdraw wholly from it.

—The Grand Jury of Philadelphia have indicted the Fire Department of that city as a nuisance, and call upon the city authorities to have it abated, meantime urging the citizens to refuse all donations to independent or volunteer companies.

—The editor of Blackwood, in a descriminating review of the career of the late Sir Robert Peel, says of him, that "the correctness of his statement of facts was such, that we do not recollect a single instance in any article impugned." Of what leading statesmen in America can the same remark be made.

THREE PROVISOES.

The following glorious provisions are incorporated in the new Constitution of Michigan:

Neither slavery nor involuntary servitude, unless for the punishment of crime, shall ever be tolerated in this State.

The Legislature shall not authorize any lottery, nor permit the sale of lottery tickets.

The Legislature shall not pass any act authorizing the grant of license for the sale of ardent spirits or other intoxicating liqours.

Stage Robbed.—The Kane County Democrat of the 2d, says:—"We are credibly informed that the mail stage coach was robbed on Thursday night between Elgin and Marengo. The straps were cut by the ruffians and the contents of the boot received as a booty. Trunk, carpet bags and all fell in to their possession, and were rifled at leisure; whilst the coachman with its passengers, unconscious of injury, rolled on through the dreamy moonlight.

The Second Northern Gate Opened.—We announced some weeks since, that the Lock of the Rapide Croche would be opened in a few days. Owing to the high water, however, the work was delayed till Friday or Saturday of last week, when the lock was opened and boats passed it. The steamer Indiana passed it on Monday and landed at Kaukauna, to the great joy of all the inhabitants.—This gives us 20 miles of river navigation.—Green Bay Advocate.

A School of Sharks.—Capt, Wedmore, of the schooner Minerva L. Wedmore, at this port, from Virginia, reports that off Montauk he passed through a school of sharks, which was about a mile in extent. Some of them appeared to be as long as nine feet, and they came up so close to the side of the vessel, that the men repeatedly struck them with poles.—This is a very unusual circumstance, and we do not remember to have seen any account of sharks in such large numbers.—Providence Journal.

Progress of Time—A yankee going thro' the country with wooden clocks.

Question for Debating Societies.—Is a little black and white dog, whose tail curls up so tight as to lift his hind legs from the ground, a biped or a quadruped?

FANCY GOODS, &c &c

THE Proprietor of this old and well known Store, having made arrangements for a

HEAVY FALL TRADE,

by the purchase of an immense stock of every thing in the line, unusually large even for this Establishment, confidently invites attention to his stock, assured that for quality, cheapness, comprehensiveness, and care in selection, it cannot be excelled by any concern west of Buffalo. As the reputation of his establishment renders unnecessary the common practice of enumerating articles and affixing to them qualities both fabulous and ridiculous, he will merely assure his patrons that he has been unwearied in selecting his stock of entire purity, and having bought close and in large quantities, is enabled to defy competion in the sale of it.

POPULAR CYCLOPEDIA OR
MODERN DOMESTIC MEDICINE
BY KEITH IMRAY, M. D.
[illegible] of the Royal College of Physicians, and [illegible] of the Royal College of Surgeons, Edinburgh.
AMERICAN EDITION.
One large Octavo Volume, substantially bound.

THIS work presents a concise but clear view of the predisposing causes, premonitory symptoms, distinguishing symptoms of disease, with the methods of cure recommended by the most eminent physicians.

The best modes of employing the medicines in general use are faithfully described; and the most approved rules for regulating diet and regimen during the periods of disease and convalescence, are amply furnished.

The Art of Preserving Health, embracing several Treatises on Diet, Air, Temperance, Bathing, Clothing, and Exercise, is fully considered.

The publisher of the American edition [illegible] Dr. Imray's work with short [illegible] complete sketches of Anatomy, Physiology and Surgery; and with directions [illegible] management of the sick, the preparation of their food, and the economy of the [illegible] &c. ## Empire Daguerrean Gallery.
A NEW AND WONDERFUL DISCOVERY!!
PEASE & RICHMOND,

HAVE just become acquainted with an entirely new and valuable improvement in the Daguerrean Art. The improvement consists in throwing the rays of light upon the plate so that the operator can give the likeness any color that he may see fit, which tends to soften and beautify the whole appearance of the picture.
Ladies and Gentlemen are respectfully invited to call at their Gallery, Empire Block, nearly opposite City Hotel, and examine specimens of their new style of work. They also continue to take likenesses after the old style where it is preferred Instructions given in the art to any who may wish.
Just received, a good supply of stock, of which they will sell on reasonable terms to operators.

Blake's Patent Fire proof Paint.

THIS singular substance is sold in a fine powder, and mixed with Linseed Oil, to the consistency of a thick paint, and applied with a brush, and after an exposure of a few months to the atmosphere the coating turns to slate or stone, protecting whatever covered from the action of the atmosphere and from fire.
As there are imitations of this paint, the public, to be safe, will be particular and purchase from my agents, and see that every barrel is marked "Blake's Patent Fire Proof Paint." The genuine article, of different colors, can at all times be had of A. W. HATCH & CO., East Water st. Milwaukee.
☞ All letters if addressed to EDWIN PALMER, Agent, Milwaukee, will receive prompt attention.

PIANO FORTES.

THE subscriber has just received a new supply of splendid PIANO FORTES, from the Boston manufactures, which in sweetness of tone and richness of finish are unrivalled in any market. He has instruments from the well known house of CHICKERING —the sweet-toned Æolian from the manufactory of T. GILBERT & Co., and some of the very best ever manufactured by HALLET, DAVIS & CO., all well known to the musical public, as the best makers.—Disinterested judges universally concur in the opinion that no Pianos in the world equal these. They have a Richer tone than any others;
Are more durable than any others;
Have a more rapid action than any others;
Stand longer in tune than any others;
Less liable to get out of order than any others;
Have a more open scale than any others;
Preserve the original tone longer than any others;
Break less strings than any others;
Are better in every particular than any others;
They sell faster than any others;
And purchasers should always examine them before buying any others.
For sale at Boston prices.
